

New Bedford Art Museum/ArtWork's Regions Gallery highlights one New England artist each month whose work will be exhibited and sold. Small group shows may also be submitted for consideration.

TIMELINE

Art works exhibited in the Regions Gallery are typically up for one month.

RECEPTION

Regions Gallery receptions are held on Aha! nights. Aha! nights are on the second Thursday of each month and generate a lot of foot traffic. Receptions are free to the public.

SALES

The artist will receive 60% of the profits from the sales of their work at the museum. The museum will receive 40% of the profits from the artist's sales (Members receive 70% of the profits). As the work sells, the work remains on display in Regions until takedown of the exhibition.

SPACE

The Regions Gallery is a bay off the main exhibition space that has three walls available for use. Two of the walls are 11' 5" and 11' 8" long and about 10' high. The third wall is 5' 5" long and 6' 5" high. Floor space and pedestals are also available for applicants.

SHIPPING AND RECEIVING

The Museum does not cover costs for shipping and receiving. If selected, the artist will be responsible for delivery and pick up of art works.

INSTALLATION

The Museum will provide a knowledgeable staff member to help with art installation. Alterations to the space are limited but changes to the space may be considered upon request. The Museum reserves the right to decline changes to the space and specific installation requests.

All mediums of art are accepted, including video and installation art. Installation artists must submit a sketch of their installation with their proposal. Video artists note, the Museum has limited tech. Video artists are encouraged to provide their own AV equipment.
